THE DIRECTOR

Dear _____,

On behalf of the National Weather Service and in recognition of Women's History Month, I am proud to take this opportunity to thank you for the hard work, devotion, professionalism, and service you provided to the Weather Bureau during World War II. You made a vital contribution to the U.S. war efforts and provided critical support to homeland safety. Please accept this letter of appreciation for your role in providing weather observations and forecasts during a pivotal time in American history.

I assure you that the men and women of today's National Weather Service honor the legacy of your commitment. We've grown into the best Weather Service in the world thanks to pioneers such as you. You will always be a member of our weather family. Your contributions, along with all women in federal service, support a Nation grateful for your efforts and sacrifices. Today's men and women who walk in your footsteps, proudly salute your hard work and want to honor you during Women's History Month.

Sincerely,

General D.L. Johnson
Director
